Dear Dad,

I arrived safely this morning. I have already made few friends. Salleh and Didik are my roommates. Both are pleasant and very hardworking.

This afternoon, the warden, Encik Kamil spoke to us. He is a gentle man but very strict. He told us to be punctual for classes, meals, and games. I already like him!

We have to be clean and dress neatly all the time. Our room too, must be always tidy.

We are allowed to go out once a week and I am looking forward to meet Uncle Bakar this weekend. Didik wants to come with me. I hope Uncle Bakar would not mind to take us to a shop. We have to do a bit of shopping before getting back. (We have to do our own laundry.)

Please don't worry about me, dad. I am happy here.

Your loving son,

Jauhari
