

Grammar Pronouns

	Singular	Plural
First	I	We
Second	You	You
Third	He / She / It	They

	Subject of the verb	Object of the verb
Singular	I like to play badminton. You are late. He is an engineer. She is an only child. It is a Persian cat.	My parents took me out. I called you last night. The teacher scolded him . They found her in the room. The car knocked it down.
Plural	We visited the museum. They won the singing competition.	They are waiting for us . The teacher praised them .

Personal Pronouns	Possessive Adjectives	Possessive Pronouns	Reflexive Pronouns
I You He She It We They	my your his her its our their	mine yours his hers its ours theirs	myself yourself himself herself itself ourselves themselves
	This is my bag. This is your book. This is his pen. This is her pencil. This is its kennel. That is our house. These are their chairs.	The bag is mine . The book is yours . The pen is his . The pencil is hers . The kennel is its . The house is ours . The chairs are theirs .	I paint the picture myself . You have to do it yourself . He writes the poem himself . She cut the fruit herself . The dog scratched itself . We saw it ourselves . They helped themselves .